November 2022

High School Edition

Preparing our students for success

Principal's Desk

Hello Peru School Community; another month is in the books! November will bring the end of the first quarter. Please reach out to teachers, counselors, and Principals with questions or concerns. Also on the second page of this Newsletter, you will see links to the communication hubs at Peru High School. This is the best way to stay in touch about upcoming events and your young learner's academic progress. Please let us know if you need assistance getting set up.

High School Edition

Sweethearts and Heroes Leave an impact!

To the left, you see Tom Murphy from Sweethearts and Heroes, acting as a bully, and Superhero Sophomore Breanna Rock as she jumps into action to save a classmate from a staged bullying situation during our High School Presentation. Tom, Rick, and, Pat spent the entire day and some nights with us here in Peru and left a lasting impact. The picture directly above shows H.O.P.E. (Hold On Possibilities Exist) expert Rick Yarosh telling his journey of H.O.P.E. as he battled through a tragic attack while serving our country in Afghanistan. The presentation was humorous, heartfelt, solemn, and impactful. They are true partners with our school and community. There will be more to come. Tom recently sat down with our WE ARE PERU podcast team to talk a little about their work here in Peru. That episode can be found here.

Resources and Reminders

The end of the first quarter is November 4th. Please contact counselors and teachers if you have questions or concerns.

The "BlueTique" at Peru

Above you see members of PSET (Positive School Environment Team) in the "BlueTique". The PSET team is led by art teacher Ms. Tracey Trombley and has over 50 members of the student body in it. The "BlueTique" is our Thrift shop featuring donated clothes and accessories, and all items are free to ALL students. In this shop, there are items from cool retro clothing to toiletries. The "BlueTique" is a popular place in the High School for those who are looking for unique, thrifty, and stylish fits!
